Waiver must be signed: Both my heirs and myself hereby waive and release all rights and claims for damages that I may incur against the organizers, sponsors, and anybody else associated with the Big Tesuque Trail Run. I authorize the organizers and support personnel to obtain and administer medical aid in the event of its necessity. I am doing this race of my own free will and because I think it will be a fun thing to do. I realize that mountain and/or trail running has risks but, hey, that's life on the edge like I like to live it and it's my own fault if I get hurt.
